

HOME RULE'S DARK OUTLOOK

FRIENDS OF THE BILL DISHEARTENED.

GENERAL DISSATISFACTION WITH THE NEW FINANCIAL CLAUSES—DEMANDS OF THE IRISH FACTIONS—MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S CRITICISM—MR. GLADSTONE ANXIOUS TO DROP CLAUSE 9.

London, June 24.—The prospects of Home Rule for Ireland are darkening. Almost every hour since Mr. Gladstone presented his new financial scheme has brought disheartening news of wavering in the Government ranks, of numerous threats of a change of policy, of the loss of the support of the House of Commons, and of the loss of the support of the House of Commons.

The new financial scheme of the Home Rule Bill, which was explained by Mr. Gladstone to the House of Commons on Thursday, has not been accepted by any party in the House of Commons, and the exact operation of the plan now proposed as a substitute for the old one is enveloped in a mystery which even Mr. Gladstone could not enlighten.

The Liberals and Anti-Parnellites, although less open in their criticism than the Parnellites, say that the new scheme is far from satisfactory, although not so far from satisfactory as the old one. The Parnellites express confidence in the bill. The Parnellites express confidence in the bill. The Parnellites express confidence in the bill.

The Parnellites, headed by John and William Redmond, say that the revised financial scheme is a masterpiece of evasion, and that it is a masterpiece of evasion.
